Mack-Cali Responds to Bow Street's Misleading Statements and Outright Lies about the Company's Board of Directors

JERSEY CITY, N.J., May 30, 2019 — Mack-Cali Realty Corporation (NYSE: CLI) (the “Company” or “Mack-Cali”) today responded to a letter sent by Bow Street Special Opportunities Fund XV, LP (“Bow Street”) to Mack-Cali stockholders on May 29, 2019 in connection with Bow Street’s ongoing proxy contest.

During the course of its self-serving and deceptive campaign, Bow Street has repeatedly used false and misleading statements to disparage the Company’s Board of Directors and disguise Bow Street’s self-interested objectives. Bow Street’s latest letter to Mack-Cali stockholders is just another example of this deceptive and unscrupulous approach. Mack-Cali believes it is important to set the record straight about the misleading statements and outright lies contained in Bow Street’s letter.

Bow Street’s True Objective Is to Make a Quick Profit

In its letter, Bow Street again claims that its objective is to create value for all Mack-Cali stockholders and attempts to portray itself as a long-term investor whose interests are aligned with those of long-term Mack-Cali stockholders. In reality, however, Bow Street is a recent stockholder who began to accumulate Mack-Cali shares just a few months before launching a proxy contest to facilitate its grossly inadequate, illusory, unfinanced and unworkable proposal to acquire the Company’s premium office assets at a price far below their fair market value.

Despite Bow Street’s claims that it has “repeatedly called on the Board to establish a truly independent committee tasked with evaluating all strategic alternatives,” Bow Street is not interested in any strategic alternatives other than a “fire sale” of the Company or its premium assets. Bow Street’s actions throughout its campaign, including its attempts to “greenmail” the Company by proposing to withdraw its director nominations if the Company agreed to sell certain assets to Bow Street at a “wholesale” price, clearly indicate that Bow Street’s sole objective is to profit at the expense of all other Mack-Cali stockholders. The Company believes that Bow Street’s most recent self-serving statements are yet another attempt by Bow Street to “bait and switch” Mack-Cali stockholders and disguise the hedge fund’s true motive: to force a precipitous sale of the Company or its assets at any price in order to realize a quick profit on its recent investment, to the detriment of all other stockholders.

Bow Street’s Statements About Mr. Mack’s Conflict of Interests Are Baseless and Highly Misleading

In its letter, Bow Street falsely states that Mr. William Mack, Chairman of the Mack-Cali Board of Directors, “has competed directly against Mack-Cali for assets.” These baseless claims are nothing more than deliberate lies designed to disparage Mr. Mack’s character and reputation. Neither Mr. Mack nor any of the companies owned or controlled by him or any members of his family currently owns any office buildings in New Jersey, has purchased any New Jersey office buildings in the last 20 years or has purchased any multifamily residential buildings in New Jersey since the Company’s acquisition of Roseland in 2012. Contrary to Bow Street’s baseless assertions, Mr. Mack has never competed with the Company or acquired any assets that would be of interest to the Company. Moreover, the Mack-Cali Board has adopted rules and policies that govern related-person transactions and transactions involving corporate opportunities, which are rigorously enforced by the Board under the oversight of its Audit Committee.

Bow Street's Claims That the Mack-Cali Board Received Credible Third-Party Acquisition Proposals Are Outright Lies

In its letter, Bow Street falsely claims that over the last several weeks, the Mack-Cali Board was presented with "credible third-party proposals to acquire all or meaningful portions of Mack-Cali for all-cash consideration" and that the Board "explicitly discouraged suitors." These statements are outright lies. Bow Street is fully aware that following the Mack-Cali Board's rejection of Bow Street's own illusory, unfinanced and unworkable proposal to acquire the Company's premium office assets at a grossly inadequate price, Mack-Cali has not received or rejected any other acquisition proposals or had any discussions with any third-party suitors. The Company believes that Bow Street's repeated falsehoods about the Mack-Cali Board's receipt and rejection of "credible" acquisition proposals constitute deliberate attempts to mislead stockholders, disparage the Board and shift investor and media attention from Bow Street's self-interested agenda.

The New Strategic Review Committee Will Be Fully Equipped to Conduct an Independent and Thorough Review of All Available Alternatives for Maximizing Stockholder Value

As previously announced, following the Company's upcoming Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting"), the Mack-Cali Board intends to form a committee of independent directors to conduct a review of the Company's strategy, asset portfolio and business opportunities (the "Strategic Review Committee" or the "Committee") to ensure that all available alternatives for continuing stockholder value creation are carefully and thoughtfully considered. The Board's decision to form the Strategic Review Committee is the result of an ongoing, constructive dialogue between the Company and its stockholders and demonstrates that the Board remains open-minded and is not opposed to any action that is in the best interests of Mack-Cali stockholders.

Contrary to Bow Street's baseless assertions, the Strategic Review Committee will have full authority to conduct an independent review of all available alternatives for maximizing stockholder value, including a potential sale of the Company. The Committee will be composed entirely of independent directors, including at least two new independent directors not currently serving on the Board. Moreover, the Board intends to extend to two of Bow Street's director nominees an offer to join the Board after the Annual Meeting and, if these individuals accept the Company's offer, appoint at least one of them to the Strategic Review Committee. The Company will also provide the Strategic Review Committee with all support necessary for the Committee to conduct a comprehensive and thorough strategic review and make its recommendation to the full Board. If, upon completion of its review, the Committee members have different views as to the best alternative for maximizing stockholder value, all of their recommendations will be presented to the full Board. The Mack-Cali Board believes that the formation of the Strategic Review Committee will allow the Company to be responsive to the wishes of Mack-Cali stockholders and ensure that all available alternatives for maximizing stockholder value are carefully and thoroughly considered.
